John E. Bell, Jr., Special Agent in Charge (SAC), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Detroit, Michigan, announces the graduation of the fourth Junior Special Agent Class at South Godwin Elementary School, Wyoming, Michigan, at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, May 31, 2002.

The Junior Special Agent Program is an eight-week structured program which provides students an inside look at today's FBI to include self-esteem and conflict resolution, physical fitness, investigative techniques, and investigative tools. During graduation, each student will receive a certificate and Junior Special Agent badge. This will be the fourth graduating class of Junior Special Agents at South Godwin.

SAC Bell personally extends a welcome to all local media outlets to attend this Junior Special Agent graduation which will be held in the gym of South Godwin Elementary School, 28 Bellevue, S.E., Wyoming, Michigan.
